

PROJECT STUDY

Business and Product Development of an early-stage Tech Startup

Who we are sphere is a fast-growing startup from Munich that helps users get to-the-point answers from experienced peers. The platform facilitates topic-based 1:1 conversations whenever you need them: <https://www.sphere.com.co>

What you can help us with

- Analysis of several use cases, customer segmentation
- Qualitative research, testing hypotheses, conducting user interviews
- Developing a market entry and sales strategy: How to implement growth mechanisms

What we can offer to you

- Be part of a founders' journey
- A jointly defined project scope that fits your preferences
- Clear goals & objectives combined with flexible working hours
- Upon successful completion of the project, possibility to join sphere as an intern or working student

Meet us!

You are creative, not afraid to take on responsibility and you'd like to be part of sphere's journey? Let's get together for a brief intro call!
